TASTE INTENSITY

A showy wine in the glass that tastes bigger than its medium weight--a lot of black cherry, cola and jammy dark fruit flavors
Fruit is supported with a soft undercurrent of acidity, and a present oak influence. Earthiness re-appears from nose adding complexity
A finish of notable length for wine at this quality marker. A lot of cherry fruit that favorably lingers with some tannic bite on the edges

General Notes

A well-made, enjoyable wine. You won't contemplate this wines profundity, but if at a party with a half-dozen other everyday drinking red wines, I'd be surprised if this wasn't the first bottle to empty.
